

„ABOUT EUROPE - CREATIVELY”

To live – to learn – to be socially and politically active – to work

Date: 25th of January 2019 (Friday)

Venue: Galeria Bielska BWA, 3 Maja 11 street, Bielsko-Biała

Time: 10.00 – 15.00

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

9.30 – 10.00	Registration of the participants
10.00 – 10.30	MyEU. Youth in the move portal to active citizenship of the European Union. Presentation of the offer of the MyEUPortal, which aim is to gather and organize (under one internet address) information from across Europe to help people better understand the rights they have as EU citizens when living in EU countries other than their own, making the information useful and universally accessible. http://www.myeuportal.eu/ [the portal will be accessible for testing at the beginning of January 2019]
10.30 – 11.15	Being a volunteer, social and political life activity in EU: My rights, my obligations, my opportunities. Introduction: Agnieszka Dadak, Fundacja Alternatywnych Inicjatyw Edukacyjnych, Poland. Guest speaker: “My story – volunteering in EU”. Questions & answers session.
11.15 – 11.45	Coffee break
11.45 – 12.30	Learning in EU - studying, getting vocational training and counselling: My rights, my obligations, my opportunities. Introduction: Lorenza Lupini, COOSS MARCHE Onlus scpa, Italy. Guest speaker: “My story – learning and upgrading vocational skills in EU”. Questions & answers session.

Project co-funded by the European Union's Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014-2020).

12.30 – 13.15	Working in EU: My rights, my obligations, my opportunities. Introduction: Tom Hunter, Hungarian Folk High School Society, Hungary. Guest speaker: “My story – working in EU”. Questions & answers session.
13.15 – 13.45	Quiz with prizes – My rights in the hosting EU country.
13.45 – 14.00	Summary – thanks – closing the conference.
14.00 – 15.00	Lunch For those interested: Cultural/touristic ending.

Please feel invited!

Patronage:

Project co-funded by the European Union's Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014-2020).

